PHILADELPHIA, August 23 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake [illegible] It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, [illegible] of whose names are appended, and who were [illegible] of all the circumstances of my case. I am, [illegible] for the last four years, a member of Sherman's [illegible] battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R B Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for [illegible] days in the hospital. This was followed by [illegible] heightened by an attack of dysentery. I [illegible] removed from the White House, and sent to this [illegible] the steamer State of Maine, from which I [illegible] 28th of June. Since that time I have been [illegible] as one could be and still retain a spark of vitality [illegible] week or more I was scarcely able to swallow [illegible] if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately [illegible] up again.

[illegible] even keep a glass of water on my stomach [illegible] last under these circumstances, and accordingly [illegible] physicians who had been working faithfully, [illegible] successfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the [illegible] frankly told me they could do no more for [illegible] me to see a clergyman, and to make such [illegible] my limited funds as best suited me. An [illegible] who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick [illegible] Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a [illegible] to try your Bitters, and kindly procured [illegible] the time I commenced taking them the [illegible] of death receded, and I am now, thank [illegible] getting better. Though I have taken but two [illegible] gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine [illegible] to rejoin my wife and daughter, from [illegible] heard nothing for eighteen months; for [illegible] a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of [illegible] To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty [illegible] which has taken the place of vague fears [illegible] will owe the glorious privilege of again [illegible] bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

NOTICE.

The members of the State Union Central Committee are requested to meet in Salem on Wednesday the 6th day of January next. Questions in regard to the time and place of holding a State Convention and other matters of importance, will be presented for the consideration of the committee. A full attendance is desired.

JOHN H MOORES, Chairman
SALEM, Dec 4th, 1863

Democratic Fidelity.

We can hardly open one of the self styled Democratic papers, without finding repeated and lofty boasts that "the party to which they belong, throughout its whole history, has been distinguished for its devotion to the Union." They declare this nonsense and falsehood in spite of the fact that within three years a war upon the Union was begun by the Democracy—that Buchanan, the chosen and fitting chief of such a party, was President when the vile act was consummated, and never lifted a finger to hinder its progress—that Floyd, Thompson, Toucey and that sort of traitors, were then in a Democratic Cabinet, plotting the ruin of the country—that these men plundered arsenals, weakened forts, robbed mints, sent frigates abroad, and used the whole power of the Government to promote and hasten its own destruction. Such was their Democratic mode of proving their devotion to the Union—a devotion like that of wolves, while watching sheep and intent only on contriving means for their destruction. This kind of political lying ought to be stopped; it has been practised too long and can deceive nobody.

LEGAL TENDERS FOR TAXES.—At the Circuit Court in Wasco county Judge Wilson has given his opinion on the tax question, and decides that legal tenders cannot be received in payment of county taxes; we have read the decision with care, and while we acknowledge the judicial learning therein manifested and do not in the slightest, question the sincere patriotism of the Judge, yet we confess with great deference that we do not see why his reasoning would not reach all debts as well as taxes. We do not perceive the distinction attempted to be made, and we do not believe that Congress ever intended to impose such a burden upon the people of any State, as the Judge's construction of the law makes possible.

TREASURY DRAFTS.—We are indebted to W T. Matlock, Esq, for the following, which explains itself, the arrangement will be of great convenience to those who are so lucky as to have such papers, and they will thank Mr Matlock for his suggestions in their behalf:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Nov 23d 1863
SIR: Yours of 19th ult, in reference to the time in which Drafts should be presented for payment, has been received. For all drafts drawn upon you the time within which they must be presented for payment is hereby extended to one year from the date of the draft.
I am very respectfully
S P CHASE,
Secretary of the Treasury
WM. T. MATLOCK, Esq, U S Designated Depository, Oregon City.

COL STEINBERGER'S REMOVAL.—We are glad to be authorized to publish the following, furnished from the Headquarters of this Military District. It explains the action of the War Department, and its publication is an act of justice to Col. S, and will silence all conjectures and idle rumors:

WASHINGTON, Nov 20, 1863
SPECIAL ORDERS No 516.
EXTRACT
* * * * *
13. Colonel Justus Steinberger, 1st Washington Territory Volunteers, is hereby mustered out of the service of the United States, in consequence of his regiment being below the required standard number of enlisted men.

Assistant Adjutant General

THE EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION.—The original copy of this document in Mr Lincoln's handwriting, was sold at the great Sanitary Fair in Chicago, to T. B. Bryan of that city for $3,000. Mr B. was one of the warmest personal and political friends of Douglas, but ever since the war begun, he has been unceasing in his efforts to save the country, and has cheerfully devoted time, his great wealth and influence to sustaining the army and the Government in all its measures.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.—We learn from Sheriff Ladd that a man named Kittemore shot John J Hess at Sauvie's Island on Saturday evening, Hess was living at last accounts, though severely wounded, twenty two shots being lodged in his body. Domestic troubles are supposed to have been the cause of the affray. Mr. Ladd went down to the Island last evening to arrest Kittemore.

DEMOCRATIC ACTIVITY.—A "peace" organ boasting of the vitality of its party, declares that "it is not lying in idleness." We presume not—a party professing such false principles cannot fairly be charged either with lying in idleness or idleness in lying.

GENEROUS.—Dr. Bellows has received from Charlotte Cushman, the actress, $8 267 29, as a donation to the Sanitary Commission, she had received it by giving Dramatic performances in some of the eastern cities.

EASTERN NEWS.

Dates to December 23.

WASHINGTON, Dec 20th.—The Joint Committee of the Senate and House of Delegates in Virginia, at Alexandria, agreed last night on a bill for a convention to abolish slavery in that State, which will be passed to-morrow.

The report of the commissioners appointed by the Navy Department consisting of [illegible] who made careful experiments [illegible] showing the practicability [illegible] for the purpose of generating steam, has been [illegible] this [illegible] saving not only [illegible] steamer which can be kept at sea [illegible] times as long [illegible] compared with coal—equal [illegible] considered. This indicates a complete revolution in the mode of generating steam.

NEW YORK, Dec 20th.—A special dispatch to the Tribune dated Washington Dec 19th says [illegible] command will soon be arranged for [illegible], the President having found the charges against him in connection with cotton speculation are utterly unfounded.

A gentleman who has resided in Richmond during the past five years, and who recently reached this city, having left Richmond Dec [illegible], has furnished the following: The garrison in the forts numbers about 4,000 men, who are principally employees of the Government. They are armed with Belgian rifles. The fortifications consist of [illegible] lines of intrenchments, earthworks and rifle pits [illegible] partly manned. The number of guns mounted on all the works is quite inconsiderable compared with their extent. At the time our prisoners planned an escape the Union men of Richmond were aware of the intended effort, and would have joined the prisoners, had they succeeded. From the Armory at Richmond, and the works at Fayetteville (N C) about 300 guns per week are turned out. All the guns are rifled at the Tredegar Works. Much artillery is being made by which they hope to make 2,000 rifles per month. The principal powder manufactory is at Augusta (Ga). Most of the stocking machinery is at Fayetteville. The loss of these would prove irreparable. Until a very late date drawings of the projectiles adopted by our Government were received from Washington, and in some cases their manufacture commenced in Richmond even before a beginning was made here.

The arrival of a French corvette for the purpose of attending to the removal of the French tobacco had created considerable feeling among the merchants and the people. Loud objections were being made to its being given up, unless the French would raise the blockade. All hopes of foreign intervention have died out. The refusal of England to allow the rams to sail excited much indignation, inasmuch as the rebel authorities had to pay for them in gold in advance. South Carolina was openly denounced in the streets, with devout wishes that the State might be sunk. The people are very anxious for an exchange of prisoners, and thought the cessation of the exchange was a plan adopted by our Government to prevent them from refilling their army. The sympathetic starvation of our men was spoken of as a policy to compel us to resume exchanges.

The Times' special dispatch has the following: The Senators and members who compose the Committee appointed by the Democratic caucus to confer with the National Democratic Committee, to fix the time and place of holding a National Convention are J L Allen, of Illinois, Fernando Wood of N Y, G B Steele, of New Jersey, W H Miller and Daniel Marcy, of New Hampshire, Garret Davis, of Kentucky, and Thomas A Hendricks of Indiana.

The following were appointed to arrange the order of business for the Democratic members who are to report to the caucus on Monday night, December 21st: Dawson, of Pennsylvania, Brooks, of New York, Pendleton, of Ohio, Mallory, of Kentucky, Robinson, of Illinois.

Since the Senate Committee indicated its purpose to repeal the $300 exemption clause, enlistments have substantially ceased all over the country. The Governors, in many of the States in letters to leading Senators, protest against the repeal as sure to run up the price of substitutes to at least $1,000. The probabilities are to-day that the exemption fee will be increased by the Senate Committee to $500.

The Government will dispatch a messenger to Halifax to-morrow with instructions to our Consul there. The action of the British authorities in protecting the pirates of the Chesapeake has caused much commotion in diplomatic circles.

FORTRESS MONROE, Dec 21st.—The following dispatch is from the Richmond papers:

Charleston, Dec 15th.—The Ironsides and three Monitors, while attempting to pass the obstructions, became entangled. The Ironsides will probably have to be abandoned. Two Monitors are also badly disabled.

WASHINGTON, Dec 21st.—The Navy Department has received a dispatch from Admiral Lee dated yesterday, saying that there is no truth in the rumor of the destruction of the gunboat Daylight by the rebel batteries near Wilmington. She is at Wilmington.

NEW YORK, Dec 21st.—A special Washington dispatch says: Congress will adjourn for the holidays, and the draft will be postponed for 20 days.

The Russian fleet leaves for Fortress Monroe during the present week. The President will visit the Admiral in his flag ship on Tuesday or Wednesday.

The House Military Committee will not consider the $300 commutation clause until after the holidays.

A letter from Bealton Station (Va) to the Philadelphia Inquirer, says: "I have heard a report brought by a contraband who recently left Gordonsville and succeeded in reaching our lines that the day before he left a Louisiana regiment and also the Jeff Davis Legion arrived there, and that the rebel authorities are sending to Gen Lee all the troops they can collect from the various points with the intention of making an attack on the Army of the Potomac."

The Philadelphia North American of this morning says the iron clad Atlanta, refitted and put in order is likely to be only less formidable than the Ironsides. The talk at the navy yard is that she will go down to Charleston and take the place of the lost Weehawken. The Atlanta is more like the Ironsides than any of the Monitors.

WASHINGTON, Dec 19.—Advices from Knoxville to the evening of Dec 18th, represent everything as quiet in that direction. Longstreet had returned to Bull's Gap, and our advance had fallen back to Rutledge. It is probable that Longstreet's retrograde movement is made solely for the purpose of wintering his army in the Watauga valley, or with a view to moving by way of Ashville into North Carolina. The railroad is in operation south from Knoxville as far as Loudon, at the crossing of Holston river. The Tennessee and Holston have sufficiently risen to afford steamboat communication with Chattanooga. Supplies are arriving rapidly. It is designed to operate the road eastward as far as Morristown to which point cars will be running in three days. Gen Foster has established the department headquarters at Knoxville. Gen Grant arrived here last night.

The battle at Blain's Station, on the 14th commenced at 2 o'clock P M and lasted till dark, Shackelford, holding his ground till that time, when he withdrew. Our loss was from 150 to 200 killed and wounded. Our forces had concentrated at Blain's Cross Roads when Shackelford left.

ST. LOUIS, Dec 21st.—A Fort Smith telegram of Dec 20th says: An attack was made on the outposts of Fort Gibson, Dec 17th, by Standwaite with a force stated at 1,500. He was repulsed and fell back taking part of his force across the Arkansas below Gibson moving northwest. The 3d Wisconsin had just returned from a successful scout southward. They went to within 15 miles of Red river. Finding the enemy had changed position since the last advices, they were unable to go further. Their return was a constant skirmish for over 100 miles, strong bodies of the enemy being posted at the crossings of the streams to intercept them. Their loss was trifling. Among the prisoners taken is the notorious Handy Lane, who boasts of having killed over a hundred Union citizens with his own hands.

Information has been received that two thirds of Kirby Smith's forces are planning an attack on Little Rock. The balance, anticipating that the Federal forces will be drawn away to reinforce Steele, are to fall on Fort Smith.

A communication from the Chief of the Choctaws says that the Choctaws will not rejoin Cooper and desire an interview with McNeil. They say they wish for peace.

NEW YORK, Dec 22.—A special dispatch to the Herald dated Washington, December 21st, says: The adjourned caucus of Democratic members of Congress, to-night, transacted no important business.

General C C Augur made a trip, to-day on the railroad as far as Bull Run, for the purpose of inspecting the road and providing against raids by the enemy. The bridges were found to be in good condition. Measures have been adopted that will doubtless prevent another descent being made upon the line within this department. Guerrillas in small parties and rebel cavalry still infest the country beyond Manassas. Depredations upon Government property between that point and the Rappahannock [illegible].

A special dispatch to the Times says: A letter received [illegible] distinguished officer of the fleet off Charleston says: So far as visible the only obstruction in Charleston harbor are the double line of piles in the channel from Fort Pinckney to the Middle Ground, and from there to Fort Johnson there [illegible] an opening [illegible] two hundred feet. The writer thinks [illegible] can be easily removed by the Monitors.

[illegible] has received a settlement [illegible] St Louis, and Curtis to [illegible] Ewing.

A special dispatch to the World, dated Headquarters Army of the Potomac December 21st, says: So far as we can judge, the rebels have not changed their position. They have made for themselves more comfortable quarters since the first snow.

A special dispatch to the Post says: The arrangement by which all matters connected with the exchange of prisoners has been [illegible] will be permanent. General Meredith who [illegible] conducting this exchange, has been ordered to report to him. A flag of truce [illegible] to leave Point Lookout to-day for City Point with a thousand prisoners on board in charge of General Butler, in exchange for whom he will [illegible] thousand of our prisoners now suffering in Richmond.

The secessionists of Baltimore who still have direct communication with the South profess to have information that Lee's army is to winter at or near Hanover Court House. The troops there have already commenced the construction of Winter quarters.

NEW YORK, Dec 22.—The Government has decided that the safety of American vessels leaving this port requires that no persons be allowed to leave as passengers or otherwise, on any American vessel without first receiving passports from the Marshal of this district. It is understood that a gunboat has already been stationed off Sandy Hook to intercept vessels leaving this port by that outlet, and another at Frogg's Neck to examine vessels leaving by the Sound, with instructions to detain such persons as are without passes. Any one can obtain a proper passport who can have his loyalty vouched for. The adoption of this stringent measure will probably prevent the repetition of the Chesapeake affair.

FAIRFAX COURT HOUSE, Dec 22.—General Michael Corcoran died this evening from injuries received by a fall from his horse.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec 22.—By a gentleman who left Richmond on December 20th we have the following later information. He says Richmond papers of the 20th have dispatches from Bristol (Tenn) stating that Longstreet, with his army, was advancing and no doubt a severe battle would be fought in the vicinity of Jonesboro (Tenn). Reinforcements from Colonel Jackson and General Sam Johnson's command were going to Longstreet.

A dispatch from Meridan (Miss) reports that Jo Johnston's army is in motion, and it was conjectured that he is to reinforce Hardee.

It was also rumored that Lee would be sent to command in Northwest Georgia, as the only hope of retrieving the heavy disasters to the rebels in that quarter. His army in Virginia has gone into winter quarters, except one division under General Lee.

Some excitement and uneasiness existed in the vicinity of Staunton (Va), in consequence of the near approach of Averill's command. Imboden and Rhodes were endeavoring to oppose Averill's further advance, and a fight was expected in that quarter.

In the rebel Congress the Substitute Bill was abrogated. All persons who have put substitutes in the army are compelled to go themselves. Foote continues his severe denunciations of the rebel Administration.

It was rumored that a Commissioner will be sent to the Court of Madrid in behalf of the rebel Government.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 22.—A messenger from the Governor and Legislature of Kentucky left Frankfort yesterday for Washington to request the President to postpone the draft until corrections can be made in the enrollment papers. Delegates have left Frankfort for the National Convention of Conservatives at Philadelphia.

General Kimball, recently in command of Little Rock (Arkansas), passed through Indianapolis yesterday en route for Washington. He represents that immense Union meetings are being held in all portions of the State indorsing, without reserve, all the act of the Administration for the suppression of the rebellion, and recommending that a State Convention be called for the reorganization of the State Government without slavery.

NEW YORK, Dec 22.—A New Orleans letter to the World, dated December 13th, says: Up to to-night we have nothing fresh from the Rio Grande, but our forces have all left the Teche, and but a small garrison is at Brashear, this side of the bay. I don't know that anything is expected from Texas just now though possibly there may be. It is reported here that Magruder is at Columbus, on the Colorado, with a large force, and that if the Federal army enters the interior its progress will be disputed. It will not, in my opinion, leave the navigable waters very soon. Magruder was fully apprised of the intended attack on the Rio Grande and rather invited it with the hope of embroiling the United States with France.

A Havana letter says Comonfort was murdered by his own countrymen, and that the Maximilian Regency is virtually dissolved by the Archbishop of the city of Mexico. The Archbishop insisted on the restoration of the church property which had been confiscated. His Grace not only retired from the Council but excluded every person, French or Mexican who opposed him from Gens Bazaine and Almonte down to the drummer boys of the "Liberating Army." The cathedral doors being closed against these parties General Negrete surrounded the building with 3,000 French soldiers, planted his cannon at the door and demanded admission within a certain time. The Archbishop then admitted the pious belligerents, officiated at mass and gave them official benediction.

Doblado, Governor of Guanajuato, declared in favor of Juarez. Vidaurri was hostile to Juarez. Mejia, Bertuni and Bazaine had been advanced in the Franco Mexican army to important positions.

The latest reports from St Domingo, via Havana, represent the Spanish troops as making a steady advance toward the heart of the insurrection, and as being likely to subdue it.

NEW YORK, Dec 21.—A special dispatch to the Tribune says: Gen Butler telegraphs that the statement telegraphed as coming from the Richmond papers that the Ironsides and two Monitors were disabled off Charleston, is not true.

A special dispatch to the Times, dated Washington Dec 22d says: The House Committee of Ways and Means to-day finished the Naval Appropriation Bill. Very little reduction from the estimates was made. The Committee has determined not to meet again until after the holidays, when they will take up the recommendations of the Treasury Department.

The veteran regiments of the Army of the Potomac are to have their bounty money immediately. The first installment will amount to about $150 per man. The number of men from the Army of the Potomac who have re-enlisted for the war is over ten thousand.

The sentiment of Senators respecting the $300 exemption has wholly changed. They will strike out the exemption clause, and not insert any amount in its place. The feeling is general that the army must be filled up and the war vigorously prosecuted to the end.

Senator Wilson will soon introduce a bill for the enlistment of soldiers in the rebellious States. Persons so enlisting may enter any regiment now in the field from the loyal States they may select. The [illegible] is to get them in the veteran regiments, and at the same time enlarge the field from which the loyal States can draw troops.

ST. LOUIS, Dec 23.—The Democrat has a Fort Smith (Ark) special dispatch, dated Dec 22d, which says: The rebel forces which crossed the Arkansas going northward were under Standwaite, Adair and Quantrell. Captain Spillman, with a portion of the Indiana troops, encountered them at Barren Fork, Cherokee country, fought them four hours and routed them. The rebel loss was about 70. They fled in all directions, but the remnants will doubtless reorganize. It is suspected their destination is the Kansas border. All quiet in front.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Dec 21.—In the House to-day, Yeaman of Kentucky offered a series of resolutions setting forth that a conspiracy of persons exists assuming to be the Government of the Confederate States for the purpose of withdrawing States from the Federal Union, but that this [illegible] extinguish the political franchise of such States and that citizens thereof can at any time construct their civil government, the only condition being that their constitutions are republican. The House refused to second a call for the previous question when, on motion of Lovejoy, the resolutions were referred to the Select Committee on States.

Spaulding of Ohio offered a resolution for the appointment of a select Committee of nine to consider and report [illegible] subject of a National Bankrupt Act. A motion to lay on the table was lost—60 to 86. The resolution was then adopted.

Ashley of Ohio introduced a bill which was referred providing provisional Governments in the military districts of the insurgent States, and authorizing loyal citizens there to organize Governments [illegible] for their purposes.

Schenck of Ohio [illegible] a Bureau of Military Justice. Referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

WASHINGTON, Dec [illegible].—In the Senate [illegible] gave notice of a bill to [illegible] the grade of Lieutenant General [illegible] the United States [illegible].

In the House [illegible] informing the House that [illegible] joint resolution of thanks [illegible] and the army under him [illegible].

CHICAGO, Dec [illegible].—In the House [illegible] Holman from the Committee [illegible] requesting the First Comptroller [illegible] proceedings in relation to [illegible] say until the further action of Congress.

After a debate in which [illegible] was lost—110 to [illegible].

WHEREAS, [illegible] Pennsylvania [illegible] only that the Act of March [illegible] 1863 [illegible] Conscription Act [illegible]

"Resolved, That [illegible] of the Executive Department [illegible] before the Supreme Court of the United States for final adjudication [illegible] constitutional objections."

The resolution was laid on the table by a vote of 80 against [illegible].

WASHINGTON, Dec 22.—The Twenty Million Appropriation Bill [illegible] passed the House yesterday [illegible] passed the Senate to-day. This bill provides that no bounties except [illegible] are provided for [illegible] shall be paid to any persons enlisted after January [illegible] the Treasury as a special deposit [illegible] of the draft [illegible] purposes [illegible].

European Intelligence

PORTLAND, Dec 23.—The Jura from Liverpool [illegible] has arrived.

The fight between Heenan and King took place near Dunbridge. King won in twenty-five rounds, occupying thirty-one minutes. No details have been received. The London Times says that little science was displayed on either side. Heenan [illegible] throughout seemed [illegible] close and hug [illegible] his antagonist at once [illegible] disabling him [illegible] to the ground. King's tactics were different and more [illegible]. It was reported that Heenan's shoulder was broken.

CALIFORNIA AND OREGON RAILROAD.—We notice the following among the proceedings of the California Senate:

Mr Cunningham's resolution in favor of Congressional aid to the California and Oregon Railroad caused a short debate on a motion to refer to a Standing Committee, made by Mr Benton and supported by Mr Hawes. Mr Cunningham said he regarded this enterprise as next in importance to the Pacific Railroad. Its completion would be of incalculable value to this coast by hastening settlement through a chain of valleys nearly 700 miles long, by opening a market for agricultural and mining products of the North, and by opening safe and easy communication between all the leading towns between Marysville and the Columbia river. He urged immediate action on the resolution, for the reason that the Engineer of the projected road intends to sail on the next steamer for Washington, to lay the merits of the enterprise before Congress and it was important that he should be able to point to this endorsement of it by the Legislature. Mr Benton was then willing to waive the reference but Mr Hawes insisted on his motion that the resolution go to the Committee on Internal Improvements. He confessed he was ignorant that a company had been formed to build such a road, and did not know if the best route had been selected, there might be other and better ones. Mr Foulke was surprised that the gentleman was not better posted concerning a matter which had been fully exposed in the public prints, and had been so long prominent. The route chosen was the only one possible, owing to the peculiar topography of the country—long narrow valleys between mountain ranges. He hoped the resolution would pass at once. Mr Hartson also supported it. The motion to refer was lost, and the resolution was then adopted. It reads thus:

Resolved, by the Senate of California, the Assembly concurring, That our Senators in Congress be instructed and our Representatives requested to use their influence to procure the early passage of a law granting National assistance in right of way, grant of land and bonds, to the companies about to undertake the construction of said Oregon and California Railroad, in the same manner as and has heretofore been extended to the Central Pacific Railroad Company.

PLAIN PREACHING.—Rev J W Hines formerly of this State, and now in California in a sermon delivered at Vallejo, on Thanksgiving Day, closed with the following decided expression of his views and hopes:

But the day of our triumph shall come. This hell inspired rebellion must die. And when the hour of its departure is at hand, let its epitaph be the response of one of its own warriors on the bloody field of Gettysburg. "Where is your regiment?" inquired one of our officers of an Alabama Colonel, whom he had captured in the midst of the fight. "Gone to Hell, Sir!" was the immediate, though profane reply. When, in years to come, our children shall pause in their joyous activities, and, with dimmed and fast fading recollections, inquire for the faint records of their country's greatest evil, may they only find "Gone to Hell sir!" uttering a fearful warning from its crumbling tombstone. There, then, let it stay, chained to the burning walls of its everlasting prison house. Let the sulphurous wave of a fiery damnation roll over it forever. Let the jeering and hissing devils laugh at it, and tossing it over the region of flame taunt it as the eternal representation of their greatest folly.

CHANGES IN OREGON COLLECTION DISTRICTS. The Washington correspondent of the Sacramento Union says:

The Customs Collection Districts of Port Orford and Umpqua, Oregon, have been abolished, and are now attached to the District of Astoria. F P Drew, formerly Collector at Umpqua, has been appointed Inspector in that District, and J H Rogers is appointed Inspector at Port Orford. These Custom Houses have been done away with for the reason that the change of the currents of trade on the Oregon coast has made their continuance an expensive superfluity and the Administration, with its usual zeal for retrenchment has recently cut off all such needless offices. This was never done under former Administrations but new sinecures were created and useless expense was incurred that political favorites might be pensioned off at the public expense.

THE PORTLAND DAILY UNION.—Under this title a new paper appeared on Saturday published by several practical printers, which promises an earnest and faithful support of the UNION and the institutions of freedom. We cheerfully welcome every auxiliary that will aid us in our efforts to bear triumphantly the banner of patriotism and liberty, and trust therefore that our neighbors will secure all the success which their merits and zeal deserve.

NEW YEARS' EVE AT BETHANY.—We learn that the school under the charge of Prof E P Henderson, gave a very interesting exhibition last Thursday evening. The performances of the pupils fully proved the fidelity and excellence of the teacher, and those of Columbus Brown and Misses C and E Brown especially deserve mention for superior merit.

Starr King's church, at San Francisco—sometimes called the "Church of the Overshot Wheel," is nearly finished. According to the Bulletin, it is magnificent beyond every thing on this coast. It cost $75,000.

THE PACIFIC had not arrived at 12 o'clock last night, although she has been regarded by some as overdue since Friday. It is reported that she did not leave San Francisco until the 29th.

SANITARY FUND RECEIPTS.—From [illegible] by W W [illegible], $1 [illegible] as follows: [illegible] $1 [illegible] $5 each [illegible] $1 [illegible]. THE INFLUENCE OF FASHION.—It would be useless to deny or attempt to deny that it is the [illegible] influenced in a greater or less degree by Fashion, and we presume the fair sex will not be displeased if we say that they are quick to discern and adopt the slightest changes occurring in the fashionable world. At this time a decided sensation and remarkable effects are being produced by the introduction of beautiful embroidery on ladies' and children's cloaks, dresses, etc. This when worked by hand is a tiresome and tedious job, and our fair readers will thank us, we know, for informing them that it is performed with marvelous rapidity by the Grover & Baker Machine, which combines this with many other valuable features. The work of days is, by this little indefatigable worker, reduced to minutes, and performed with an accuracy almost incredible.

To The Public.

I WOULD HEREBY CALL THE ATTENTION of the public to the fact that on the first of May 1864, they will be called upon by the United States Assessors to make statement of Income for the year 1863, and as the year 1863 is just ended, it would be well for every one to make up their accounts for said year, while everything is fresh in their memory, and be ready to make statements when called upon by the Assessor.

Under the ruling of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue persons can only deduct expenses for repairs, etc., from the amount received from the same property on which such expenditure have been made. For instance—a person receives $600 for rents, he can use of that amount all that is necessary to repair such property from which rents were derived; the same rule applies to steam-boats, mills and other like property, but all moneys derived from interest on notes, Bonds, Mortgages, and from dividends must be returned as Income, although a portion or the whole has been expended to repairing buildings, steamboats, etc.

If persons will prepare their accounts and statements showing amounts received, and the source from whence derived, amount expended, and for what purpose, then with the forms and blanks which will be furnished them by the Assessor a correct return can be made.

DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM HAS EFFECTED cures in numerous cases, where the most skilful physicians in this country and in Europe have been employed, and have associated their skill in vain. Cures pronounced incurable, and sentenced beyond a doubt to be hopeless, leaving the patients without a single ray to enliven them in their gloom, have been cured by Dr Hall's Balsam, and the victims of consumption are now vigorous and strong as the most robust among us. And these cases are not isolated ones, they are numerous and can be pointed out in every community where this remedy has been tested. Dr. Wm. Hall's

THERE is no other way to cure diseases but by first purifying the whole system so as to create a healthy circulation.

The first medical men of the age agree with us, that no disease of any extent can be cured without using such medicines as will act directly upon the blood. Why many medical men have failed to cure chronic diseases is because the medicines used have not been such as will act beneficially on the blood.

The many thousands of bottles which have been used by the public, and the many gallons and barrels supplied to the physicians, warrant us in saying that the last two years we have been more successful with our Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup in curing hopeless cases of chronic diseases than have any other remedies in the hands of physicians, or before the public.

It is now admitted that no combination known to the profession, acts so promptly upon diseases as our SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP.

NOTICE TO CITY PATRONS.—Mr L M Parris ... having voluntarily relinquished his connection wit ... the OREGONIAN as carrier, is no longer authorize ... to collect or receipt for any moneys due this office.

SAILING OF THE OREGON.—This ship ha ... risen from her bed, steamed out to the mout ... of the Willamette, received once more he ... freight and passengers, and gone on her way ... rejoicing—we hope never to return and ex ... the right of way where nature never intend ... vessels with such unnecessary depth of hu ... should navigate. The last load of freight and ... passengers left Couch's wharf per steame ... Express at 3 o'clock on Saturday afternoon ... and the Oregon sailed at 5 o'clock, yesterda ... evening. We hope the steamship company ... will at length discover the inutility of employ ... ing in the Oregon trade vessels of such old ... fashioned construction and inordinate draf ... of water as to interfere with the calculation ... of merchants and seriously incommode travel ... ers by unnecessary detentions. While this ... misfortune to the Oregon has given employ ... ment to three steamers and a scow or two for ... the best part of four days, thus promoting ou ... prosperity in one way, we believe that it woul ... create a very general feeling of satisfaction ... were even the Sierra Nevada returned to th ... route in place of the Oregon, as we ar ... informed that her carrying capacity is e ... with much lighter draft, and that with ord ... nary care she could navigate the river without ... danger of running aground. Indeed, the ... trade is now sufficiently lucrative to warrant ... the construction of a line of first-class ocean ... going steamships of greater length and beam, ... and lighter draft, expressly for this route.

NEW YEAR'S DAY.—Open doors, general ... and cordial greetings and hospitable enter ... tainments marked the dawn of the New Year ... Latch strings were out at many of our city ... residences, while within were cheerful faced ... ladies presiding over generous collations dur ... ing day and evening, and enhancing the en ... tertainment with music and mirth. We are ... glad to know that coffee and other beverages ... "which cheer but not inebriate" were very ... generally substituted for the convivial bump ... ers that in old times were deemed indispensa ... ble to a fitting observance of the day. The ... idea is fast becoming obsolete that every pri ... vate mansion should on New Year's be con ... verted into a free lunch and tippling house, ... to lure men on to practices an indulgence in ... which would ever after debar them from asso ... ciating at the fireside or even crossing the ... portal as a guest. Many gentlemen number ... ed from thirty to forty calls, and many houses ... a greater number of visitors. One sober-sided ... old friend of ours commenced his tour from ... Sleepy Hollow, in company with a select par ... ty, but before he had veered and hauled more ... than four or five points, he became so much ... bewildered by the bright eyes and dimpled ... smiles that wished him a "Happy New Year," ... that he left his pea jacket without remember ... ing where, and spent the remainder of the ... day and evening in fruitless search and en ... quiry for the missing garment. He worked ... to windward until he thought he descried "Sa ... lem" ahead, when he scudded away, clewed ... up everything, squared the yards by lifts and ... braces, and, loaded with coffee, floated leisure ... ly down Front street, under convoy of his ... "boys" until he made the old landmarks, ... where he came to anchor, wishing every day ... was New Year's, and he one monster sugar ... plum to get stuck on all the pretty mouths he ... had seen smiling their bewitching smiles on ... him that day.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.—We notice with much pleasure the efforts now being put forth by members of the various Evangelical denominations toward forming a Young Men's Christian Association in the city of Portland. The advantages which may be derived from the successful establishment of such an institution in our midst can no more be set forth in the ordinary space allotted to a secular newspaper item, than can the scheme be successful when wanting the pre... essential element of earnest, vital and practi ... cal Christianity. Those who have participat ... ed in or are familiar with the workings of such ... associations in older established communities ... require only the announcement that a work ... of similar character has been undertaken here ... to secure for it their earnest support. The ... different Evangelical clergymen have, we un ... derstand, lent their influence and experience ... to the move, and we hope the young men, for ... whose benefit it is especially designed, will ... not withhold a helping hand. This move ... ment together with a simultaneous effort for ... a Mercantile Library Association, shows that ... the people of Portland are awaking to an ap ... preciation of what is to their true interest, and ... we bid these and all kindred associations a ... hearty God speed!

TREASURE FOR STEAMER OREGON.—In ad ... dition to the treasure heretofore reported per ... steamer Oregon, Wells, Fargo & Company ... shipped $15,000 after she grounded, raising ... their total shipment on her to $190,000. We ... did not hear of any addition to Agents' freight ... list, formerly quoted at $22,000. Thus we ... have $212,000 reported, and from information ... obtained through private sources, it is fair to ... presume that the total value of gold dust on ... board from this place and our mines consid ... erably exceeds half a million, while from Vic ... toria the steamer has only about $70,000.

Thus we have $212,000 reported, and from information gained through private sources it is fair to presume that the total value of gold dust on board from this place and our mines considerably exceeds half a million, while from Victoria the steamer has only about $70,000.

SUNDAY WEATHER.—Yesterday morning the sun shone resplendently and inveigled many an unwonted vow to attend church for once at any rate because 't was so pleasant.' At the ringing of the second bell crowds wended their ways, beneath outspread umbrellas, to the various places of worship. At noon umbrellas were used as canes. The afternoon was cloudy cold and disagreeable. 'The evening was glorious' in its starlight, but the coldest of the season

Amen, I Say.

Humble your bodies in sackcloth and ashes,
Hide your heads from the light of the sun,
Smite your hearts with conscience's lashes
Blush if you can for the deeds you have done
Weep for the aid you have given to traitors,
Do not let repentance illumine your souls—
Souls! if you had them your crime would be greater
Snakes of humanity crawl to your holes
Brazen faced Copperheads white-livered Copperheads
False-hearted Copperheads crawl to your holes

You that incited rebellion and treason
You that have aided it all that you could
You that have fought against conscience and reason
And all of the rights th[illegible]
Hark through the land from each tower and steeple
The knell of rebellion most solemnly tolls,
Flee from the scorn of intelligent people
Noisome serpents [illegible] crawl to your holes
Crimson-faced Copperheads, rum[illegible] Copperheads,
Traitorous Copperheads, crawl to your holes

Now, when the moon of [illegible] is setting,
Why do you struggle and fight against fate?
Can you not cease your complaining and fretting,
Try to be men ere you find it too late
The tide running northward in haste is retiring,
The wave urged by freedom triumphantly rolls
The time has passed by for your plots and conspiring—
Reptiles and renegades crawl to your holes
Venomous Copperheads [illegible]sneaking Copperheads,
Vile-hissing Copperheads crawl to your holes

You that have aided this carnage and plunder,
You that have urged a resistance to draft,
Open your eyes with abhorrence and wonder
Can you not see that you all have been daft
Mobbing and riot will bring retribution
Errors can all be made right at the polls
Stand by the Laws and the old Constitution
Cowardly Copperheads crawl to your holes
Holes! holes holes holes

The Northern Railroad Branch.

OREGON, Dec 21, 1863

TO HON. J W NESMITH—Dear Sir —In giving my reasons for preferring the location of the Northern Branch of the Pacific Rail road upon the route described in my letter of the 16th inst., the limits of this correspondence will admit little beyond a mere reference to the facts and authorities which have led me to that conclusion

It will be conceded by all interested in this great work that unless it descends the valley of Snake river so as to connect the extensive gold fields with the States east, and with Oregon it will answer none of the valuable purposes expected from it,—hence the necessity of fixing upon a point of departure east of Salt Lake, as a road from any point west of Salt Lake to reach Snake river by any known pass would be longer than from the crossing of Ham's Fork of Bear river

For the practicability of all the routes between Ham's Fork and Snake river we have the authority of explorations made by the Government. For that part along the south side of Snake river to the mouth of the Malheur we have not that authority, as it seems no Government exploring party has ever passed over it. Fremont is the only explorer who (as far as I know) has ever descended Snake river having crossed to the north side for better grass. But as it has been an emigrant road for twenty years, where neither mountains nor large streams are encountered we may safely conclude a railroad may also pass that way.

From the mouth of the Malheur to Portland, as there are conflicting interests, there may also be a diversity of opinion in regard to the proper location of the railroad

Fremont passed from the mouth of the Malheur to Walla Walla in 1843 and thence down the Columbia to Vancouver, but found no practicable railroad route from the Malheur to Walla Walla. Williamson and Abbot explored the Des Chutes valley with no better success, and though Stevens reports a practicable route down the Columbia from Walla Walla it is of no value unless a route is found over the Blue mountains to connect with it Because Government explorers have not found a pass, I by no means conclude that there is none—but I think it safe to say from the rugged and mountainous character of the country that a railroad by any route from the Malheur to the Dalles will be an extremely difficult and vastly expensive undertaking and, if made, of much less value to the Government, and to the people of Oregon, than one following the valley of the Malheur, and entering the populous portion of the State, at its southern extremity

From the mouth of the Malheur to Summer Lake I have no official authority to establish the character of the country, but large numbers of our citizens have traveled through it, some of them with wagons They all concur in describing it as a plane broken only occasionally by a hill or detached butte, and like that part of it west of Summer Lake, which has been explored extensively by Government parties, no serious obstruction or expensive work will be found to the construction of a railroad, but with all necessary material convenient to the road, except in very few places, will pass by easy grades through open valleys to the Klamath river at the base of the Cascade mountains. Lieut. Abbot, upon the authority of Lieut. Crooke and intelligent citizens who know the route, reports the emigrant road (known to us as the "Southern route"), which here crosses the Cascade mountains, to be a good railroad route

Being one of the party who located that road I cannot agree with Lieut Brooks and the "intelligent gentlemen" in opinion The emigrant road was not expected by its locators to become a railroad track, and through the eastern ascent is easy if a locomotive were to attempt the descent into Rogue river valley it would certainly be dashed to pieces before it reached the bottom But as I have strong faith that here, if anywhere in Oregon, a railroad may cross the Cascade mountains I will attempt a brief description of the mountain at this place Besides being lower here the width of the chain is reduced from ninety miles, its common width along the Willamette valley to thirty miles; the summit is not as elsewere, a succession of high ridges furrowed by deep ravines, but a high plain, or table land, broken by occasional butte's of stone The streams flow sluggishly in notches but little below the general level until they approach the sides of the mountain, where they have cut canyons which vary in depth according to the size and descent of the streams To the south is the chasm through which flows the Klamath river—The mountain plain is 15 or 20 miles wide and may be easily reached from the east On the western side a portion of the mountain is detached from the plain and forms a sharp ridge curving around the head waters of Stewarts creek and stretching away to the west forms the Siskiou mountain, one of the most formidable obstacles to be overcome by a railroad between the Columbia and Sacramento. The difficulty being the steepness of its Southern descent scarred by deep ravines which would make side location along its face vastly expensive if not impossible. So great is this difficulty that Lieut Abbot recommends a tunnel six miles long and move them 1400 feet below the summit to overcome it! But by a fork of Stewarts creek heading towards the Pilot Rock on this ridge a practicable railroad grade may be had into Rogue river valley. This ridge being nearly as high as the main summit of the Cascades, if no better way is found a railroad may reach the Rogue river valley by following the Siskiyou ridge to this descent, but I think such a detour will not be found necessary Of the location of the balance of the road to Portland I need not write at present. Yours truly, x

"I am afraid you'll forget me, wife, while I'm away," said a brave officer.

"Never fear, my dear; the longer you are away in your country's service the better I shall like you."

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters (purely vegetable) hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor Whiskey, vilely compounded with injurious drugs and christened Tonics Stomachics and Bitters

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which instead of curing only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair

Hoofland's German Bitters!

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,
LAWYERS,
PHYSICIANS
and
CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev J Newton Brown D D , Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters prepared by Dr C M Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture I am indebted to my friend Robert S[illegible], Esq for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before and had almost despaired of regaining. I, therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them J NEWTON BROWN

PHILADELPHIA June 23, 1861

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whisky, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medical virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SO

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters"

PHILADELPHIA, August 23, 1862

Messrs Jones & Evans —Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery and under the immediate command of Captain R B Ayres Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as one could be and still retain a spark of vitality For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances, and accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer frankly told me they could do no more for me and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital Mr Frederick Steinbron of Sixth below Arch Street advised me, as a forlorn hope to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now thank God for it getting better Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months, for gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian from the vicinity of Front Royal To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr Malone, restored to life
